Applicants would first like to thank Examiner Williams for graciously providing a telephonic interview with their attorney, Steven E. Bach on March 24, 2005, the substance of which is provided below.

Examiner Williams and Applicants attorney, Steven E. Bach discussed the title of the invention and Examiner Williams agreed that the title of the invention, as filed, is adequately descriptive. Accordingly, Applicants respectfully contend that the objection to the title of the invention is now moot.

Applicants thank Examiner Williams for pointing out minor errors of omission of reference numbers in figure 2 and typographical errors in the specification which errors are corrected herein.

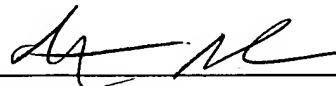

Applicants gratefully acknowledge the indication of allowability of claim 2, the limitation of which is incorporated into claim 1 from which it depends. Accordingly, Applicants respectfully content that claim 1 is now in consideration for allowance. Claims 3-6, 12, 17-18, 20, and 24-25 depend from claim 1, and Applicants respectfully contend that they are allowable for the reasons that claim 1 is allowable.

Examiner Williams and Applicants attorney discussed claims 19 and 21-23, which claims it was agreed, are drawn to a non-elected species and are cancelled herein. Claims 2, 3, 7-11, 13-16, and 26-38 also have been cancelled.

In view of the amendments and arguments presented herein, the application is considered to be in condition for allowance. Reconsideration and passage to issue is respectfully requested.
